

SLC ONLINE FORUM – Getting Started

Think of the SLC Forum as a virtual conference. You need to register in order to participate.

The easiest way is to ask your SLC Section or the SLC Communications Chair, seniorliberalscontact@gmail.com to register you. You will receive an email once this is done, saying “Thank you for registering at SLCAL Forum. Your username is ... and your password is ...” Then type www.slcal.ca/ in your Internet browser.

The following screen will come up this first time that you access the Forum:

REGISTRATION REQUIRED

If you have not registered yet you will need to register now.
PLEASE REGISTER NOW with SLCAL Forum.
After registering, access the Policy Forums by using the
LOGIN PANEL

Click on LOGIN PANEL and the screen below will appear:

Login

Login

Forgot your password?

Enter your first and last name in Username. Ignore 'Minutes to stay logged in'. EITHER enter the password sent to you (keep a note of it) and click Login to complete registration (skip to page 3) to set your own (easier to remember) password, click on Forgot your password? The following screen will appear:

OR

Authentication Reminder

If you've forgotten your login details, don't worry, they can be retrieved. To start this process please enter your username or email address below.

Username/Email:

Enter either your Username or email address and press Continue. You then see:

Authentication Reminder

A mail has been sent to your email address. Click the link in that mail to set a new password.

Once you receive the email saying "This mail was sent because the 'forgot password' function has been applied to your account. To set a new password, click the following link:" followed by a link beginning "<http://slcal.ca/forums/index.php?action=reminder:sa=setpassword...>" Either click on the link (or cut and paste it into your browser) and this will come up:

Authentication Reminder

Choose password:

Verify password:

Enter the same password (something you will easily remember) twice and Click Save:

 Login

Don't be afraid to experiment. For example, click on Welcome-Bienvenue and you'll see topics you can add comments to, including The Weather. It's a good place to try things out – add, edit, delete a comment, or reply to one already there and see what happens.

If you come across useful information that might help others in policy development, add it to the Policy Resource Links 2019/2020 Boards covering (so far): Election Interference / Electoral Reform / Environment / Healthcare / Housing / Jobs / Seniors.

If you're involved in a national or Section policy working group, you might be invited to private discussion areas, which will then show up on your screen automatically. Share your ideas there.\

Note that the SLC Forum has many extra features that can simply be ignored (as in the grey box at the bottom of the screen below).

The screenshot shows the SLC Forum interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for Home, Help, Search, Contact, and Logout. Below this, there are links for Profile, My Messages, and Members. The main content area displays a list of forum topics with columns for Subject / Started by, Replies / Views, and Last post. The topics listed are:

Below the forum list, there is a greyed-out sidebar with various topic types and a search bar. The sidebar options include:

- Topic you have posted in
- Normal Topic
- Hot Topic (More than 15 replies)
- Very Hot Topic (More than 25 replies)
- Locked Topic
- Sticky Topic
- Poll

The search bar at the bottom right of the sidebar shows "Jump to: => Welcome - Bienvenue" and a "Go!" button.

Most users of the Forum will mainly read what others have said and add their own ideas, resulting in a productive grassroots policy discussion.

If you have questions at any time on use of the Forum, contact your Section Communications Chair or seniorliberalscontact@gmail.com.
